

Exciting New Offering for Partners!

“What about the Partner?”

A workshop for the non-birthing partner to explore issues related to pregnancy, birth, the postpartum period, and parenting.

While you and the expectant mother have several questions, issues, and concerns that will be addressed throughout the course of her prenatal care, you---the non-birthing partner---may have questions and concerns specific to your role.

This is a forum for you to ask your questions, share your concerns, and explore your role as a birth partner, support person, and parent.
